TOFIELD-CALGARY BRANCH WILL BE FINISHED THIS SUMMER

Mr. Porter, of Calgary, is agent of the G. T. P. at Edmonton, was in Lethbridge last week where he said that the volume of business produced by the farmers of southern Alberta would certainly warrant his company building the Calgary to Lethbridge line as soon as possible.

Mr. Porter further said that he had driven over part of the Tofield to Calgary line and from the advanced stage of the operations there, he had no doubt that that part of the grade would be finished in about two months and that the steel would be laid to Calgary this summer.

MANNERS

Manners affect the daily happiness of every human being, and the fortune and destiny of every tribe or nation. Their influence on human existence is profound and incessant. Good manners are founded on reason or common sense and good will. They put people at ease in social intercourse, welcome graciously the stranger and the friend, dismiss pleasantly the lingering visitor who does not know how to withdraw. They enable people to dwell together in peace and concord; whereas bad manners cause friction, strife and discord.—Dr. C. W. Eliot.

SOMETHING DOING

In reply to an enquiry made regarding the outlook for Mirror, H. J. Raymer, Townsite agent here, stated: "While at the present time I don't care to say what developments will take place in Mirror this season for fear that some may consider me too optimistic, yet I am free to say this, that from information received from the head office this week, certain influences are at work in the interests of Mirror, that there will be things doing. So the citizens who have pinned their faith to the Towl will have no cause to regret it."

COUNCILLOR RE-ELECTED

The election for councillor in Div. 4, Dist. 20 1/4, last Monday was hotly contested and both parties were out early soliciting votes. S. G. Dunham, who held the office previous to this election was returned by a good majority, the vote standing 38 in favor of opening and improving of roads leading into Mirror was one of the chief promises used in canvassing votes, but the people of Mirror evidently favored the man nearest home and gave him the majority. R. W. Barritt was the other candidate for office.

MINSTREL SHOW A SUCCESS

The Merry Mirror Minstrels held the attention of a packed house last Friday night, Mar. 15, in Johnson's hall. For over three hours the Darkeys gave an excellent account of themselves, and drew forth bursts of applause and laughter by their antics and funny anecdotes. The solos, duets, quartettes and choruses were all heartily applauded and were willingly responded to. Following was the program:

PART I
Quartette—"Tuning Tonight";
Chorus—"Swing Those Gals Ajar";
Solo—"My Old Bassoon," Mr. Johnson;

Quartette—"Spiced Away";
Encores—"Who Built the Ark";
Duet—"That Kleptomaniac Feelin'";
Bones and Tambos, with chorus;

Solo—"I wish I had a Girl like the Other Fellows Get," Basso;

Solo—"Have you a Little Fairy," Geo. Washington;

Quartette—"Moonlight on the Lake";
Encores—"Jennie";
Solo—"Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," Uncle Joe;

Encores—"Deep, Down Deep";
Instrumental solo—Mrs. Sorum;

Chorus—"Dixie Land";
Chorus—"Donkey Song."

PART II
Chorus—"Swanee River";
Clap Dancing—Prof. Brown;

Solo—"Love's Old Sweet Song" Jumbo; Bones and Jack Johnson and Sam Langford;

Monologue—Mose;

Quintette—"Massa in the Cold, Cold Ground";
Club Singing—Ceaser;

Ten Minutes Fun—Mose, Tambos and Bones;

Duet—"Pussy Cat and Bow-Wow," Sambo and Geo. Washington;

Joke Trilogue—Lil' Arthur, Rufus and Uncle Josh;

Solo—"I'd like to hear that Song Again," Sambo;

Instrumental solo—Johnson Bros.;
Step Dance—Prof. Brown;

Duet—"Sambo and Dinah," Sambo and Geo. Washington;

Stump speech—Basso;

A Round Table Talk—Sambo, Uncle Joe, Basso and Geo. Washington;

Chorus—"Judge Bell," "Maple Leaf Forever," "Good Night Ladies," "God Save the King."

The company of G. Williams, Bones, H. Williams, Tambos, L. Humphrey, Little Arthur, C. McCormack, Ceaser, J. Jewel, Mose, J. Soren, Geo. Washington, M. B. Sullivan, Sambo, E. Flewelling, Uncle Josh, G. Stogies, Basso, Mr. McKinnin, Prof. Brown, Mr. McKinnin, Mr. Johnson, H. Soren, Jumbo, M. Olsen, Uncle Josh.

Considering the difficulties they had to contend with the members of the company deserve great credit for the manner in which they performed. The size of the hall did not give the singers a fair chance to display their ability, and the same concert given in an up-to-date opera house would be far in advance of the regular run of shows given throughout the West.

LOCAL HITS

The fight between Jack Johnson and Sam Langford resulted in the latter taking the count in the second round, the fatal blow being a cork-screw left upper cut to the jaw.

Del. Jewel will no doubt be in great demand for after-dinner speeches, pink teas and Ladies' Aid meetings.

The Williams brothers as end men kept the audience guessing as to who would be the victim of the next joke.

Rufus Basso, Brown, (Chas. Wilson), Mrs. Jack Johnson, (W. H. Rand); Count I don't giveadamski, (J. Adams), and Miss Matilda Matthews, (J. T. McKie) occupied the vice-regal box over-looking the stage.

J. N. Mitchell performed the duties of interlocutor in an able manner.

Tom Tate was there with the glad hand.

BUILDING UP THE TOWN

The principal of community building has been placed upon a footing with the necessities to growth and expansion. Briefly, it is the principle which leads the residents of a city or town to organize and unite for the purpose of adding to and increasing the prosperity of the community in which they live. The usual procedure is to make known to as many people as possible the advantages of living and doing business in their particular town, to attract to the community as many industries and business houses as possible and to make the dwellers in the place feel and appreciate the advantages of living there. The increase of population brings business, which in itself increases the population, the one adding to and increasing the other by natural law. The results of this movement for the betterment and increase in the cities and towns of the West has undoubtedly borne much fruit and it is safe to repeat and emphasize the statement to the effect that to the growing town in the West and in the large city as well, the community builder is a necessity. These movements have taken and will take a most important place in the history of the West.

The greatest factor in these movements is not the money involved nor the individual work and effort contributed. It is no such tangible materials as these—it is a spirit of willingness to help in the march toward general improvement and growth, a spirit that is willing to make some sacrifice of private aims and efforts to add to the mutual good of the people of the community. It is the spirit that has for its fundamental principle that the town in which we live is the best town in the West, that spreads that belief and makes a slogan of it, that hammers it into the neighbor and stranger alike and that leads the man who holds it to take hold of the work of bettering his community with vim and enthusiasm.

Let us look at this town helping principal from a business standpoint. What will it do for the general and hardware merchants, the lumber and machine dealers and all the other lines of business? Will it pay them in dollars and cents for the money and time put into it?

In the first place it will teach the people of the town to take an interest in town affairs, to believe that what is good for the town's business men is for the good of the town in general and for their own good in particular. It will teach them their true position as regards their duty to the business people of the town. It will bring the merchant and the rank and file of his customers nearer together and place them on a better basis of mutual understanding. The education of the buying public is a necessity; it is quite probable that most of the best customers of the mail order houses do not realize that each and every order they place outside of their own town is not only a blow at the welfare of the home merchant, but a proof as well of their own lack of loyalty to their own community.

It would seem then as if these community improvement movements bring results both at home and abroad. While the latter aim is always the motive of these movements, the home missionary work accomplished is most important also. Such movements will wake the townspeople up to the fact that their own town has a great many advantages that they never dreamed of, that it is worth while to work for its benefit and betterment, that it is the people in the town and not the town itself that are responsible for the town's progress. When they once awake to this fact the community improvement movement is always bearing fruit.

But before the rank and file of the population can be expected to take hold of such a movement it is a patent fact the business element generally must begin the work and must shoulder the responsibility. Properly conducted such a campaign is certain to bring results and, with a proper condition to sustain it is worth the support of the business community.

NAVAL POLICY RE-OPENED

The Laurier naval bill will be repealed by the present government. Mr. Borden will formulate a new policy which will be submitted to parliament and before any permanent naval program is put into force, the people of Canada will be given an opportunity to pronounce on it.

The above is the text of a reply made by Premier Borden in the house last week to Mr. Mondou, Quebec nationalist member. Mr. Mondou, asked if it was the intention of the government to repeal the naval service act, and if in such an event a new policy would be brought down; would it be submitted for the approval of the people before being put into force?

Premier Borden replied in the affirmative tone to all these questions. Hierarchically, "After such consideration and inquiry as may be made, the government will present its naval policy to parliament and people. That policy will undoubtedly require legislation which will involve the repeal of the present act. In the meantime that act will remain on the statute book for purpose in connection with the fisheries protection service and otherwise. Before any permanent naval policy is put into force the people will be given an opportunity to pronounce upon it."

RAILWAY ACCIDENTS IN U.S.A.

The last annual report of the U. S. Interstate Commerce Commission gives accurate information as to the number of persons killed and injured in the U. S. & A. for the year ending with the last June. The killed numbered 10,296, and the injured 150,150. Of the killed, 356 were passengers, and 13,433 of the 150,150 were passengers.

These figures make a bad showing compared with the casualties in English railroads. There were 5,160 accidents last year due to such causes as broken rails, soft tracks, spread rails sun kink, bad ties, and irregular track, showing the necessity of improving the physical condition of the roadways. The commission reports that steel cars are very superior to wood on ones.
